- (f) if you are approved by CLSA to trade Options Market Products, you have either entered into a current Wholesale Client Agreement with ASX Clear in accordance with the Market Operating Rules, or have entered into a clearing agreement with a clearing participant (which may be Citigroup Securities Clearing Australia Limited ("CSCA") or a third party) in a form which complies with the Clearing Rules.

4. Clearing Arrangements

We have entered into an arrangement with CSCA for the clearing and settlement of Market Transactions that we execute.

- 4.1 Under the ASIC Market Integrity Rules, an agreement is deemed to have been entered into between you and CSCA (with us having the authority from CSCA to enter into that agreement accordingly) upon the terms set out in the Disclosure Statement. You further declare and warrant, and authorise us to disclose and warrant to the Market on any application form that any such application made is intended to benefit you or the person for whose benefit you are applying.

6. Dealing as Principal Disclosure and Consent

Pursuant to s.991E of the Corporations Act 2001, CLSA may, from time to time, deal as Principal (on its own behalf or for a CLSA Entity) against your order.

You consent to any such Principal dealings that may arise, until such time you revoke your consent (orally or in writing) in relation to specific orders (or generally).

7. Authority to charge Commission/Brokerage for Wholesale Clients

In relation to your Market Transactions entered into with us as Principal, you authorise us to charge brokerage, commission or any other fees in the amount disclosed to you from time to time in respect of such transactions.

8. Allocation of Orders

(a) If you request, we will provide you with information about the current policy we adopt in the allocation of Market Transactions to fill orders placed with us.

(b) By placing an order for a Market Transaction with us, you agree that you have been provided with a copy of, and read and understood, our Australian Best Execution policy statement and disclosure of crossing system information, the latest versions of which are available at www.clsa.com/terms-of-business/.

9. Confirmation of transactions

Where applicably, by providing you with a confirmation in relation to a Market Transaction, you consent and authorise us to:

(a) accumulate 2 or more Market Transactions and specify a single volume weighted average price for those Market Transactions (and if you request, we will give you details of the individual prices of the relevant products, which were accumulated and averaged in the confirmation); and

(b) provide you with confirmation information by means of an electronic communication including, without limitation, by email or by accessing a standing confirmation facility to obtain or view confirmations.

10. Cancellations

You acknowledge and agree that we may, without your consent, cancel or amend (or request or agree to the cancellation or amendment of) an order or Market Transaction:

- (b) in the event of an error or otherwise in the circumstances contemplated in the ASIC Market Integrity Rules or the Market Operating Rules; or
- (c) if we deem (in our absolute discretion) that it is necessary to do so in order for us to comply with any applicable rules, requirements and regulations.

Your and our obligations in relation to the order or Market Transaction cease to apply in respect of a cancelled order or Market Transaction from the time it is cancelled or, if the order or Market Transaction is amended, continue to apply only as amended.

If we cancel or amend an order or Market Transaction, we will notify you as soon as reasonably practicable.

11. Client trust money

If, for any reason, we are required to hold funds on trust on your behalf in an account, in accordance with section 981B of the Corporations Act (the "Client Trust Account"), then you agree that we may retain any interest or other earnings on the investment for our sole and absolute use.

12. Short selling

- 12.1 Naked Short Selling is prohibited. As such you agree that you must not place an order to effect a sale which would contravene subsection 1020B(2) of the Corporations Act. For the avoidance of doubt, you may place an order if the sale would be a Covered Short Sale that is not prohibited by the Corporations Act.
- 12.2 Each time you place an order to effect a sale which would, if executed, constitute a Covered Short Sale you must:
 - (a) notify us that the transaction will be a Covered Short Sale and provide us with all information reasonably required by us to satisfy our short sale reporting obligations under the Corporations Act, the Corporations Regulations;
 - (b) comply with all applicable short selling obligations set out in Part 7.9 of the Corporations Act and Part 7.9 of the Corporations Regulations; and 12.3 Without limiting Clause 12.2 of these Market Terms, you must also give us the information in relation to short selling which we notify to you from time to time and within the time required by us in such notification.

12.4 Your disclosure obligations described in this Clause 12 will continue to apply after the termination of the Terms of Business.

13. GST

13.1 Unless expressly stated otherwise, any reference in these Market Terms or the Terms of Business to cost, expense, price, value, sales, revenue or a similar amount in respect of a Market Transaction is a reference to that amount exclusive of GST. If GST is payable on any of the Services we provide to you under, by reference to or in connection with these Market Terms, you must also pay an additional amount on account of GST (the "GST Amount").

13.2 The GST Amount is payable on the earlier of the first date on which payments are due to us in connection with the provision of Services to you under these Market Terms and the date five Business Days after the date on which we issue a valid tax invoice in relation to the provision of Services to you.

13.3 If an adjustment event arises in respect of the provision of Services, the GST Amount will be adjusted to reflect the adjustment event and we, or you, as the case may be, must make any payments necessary to reflect the adjustment.

13.4 Any calculation of a cost, expense or other liability must exclude the amount of any input tax credit entitlement of a party (or any input tax credit entitlement of the representative member for a GST group of which the party is a member) in relation to the relevant cost, expense or liability. You will be assumed to have an entitlement to a full input tax credit unless you demonstrate otherwise prior to the date on which any payment is due.

13.5 All expressions used in this Clause 13 which are defined in the GST Law have the meanings given to them in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth).
